Without expectation of compensation or other remuneration, now or in the future, I hereby give my consent to the Appalachian Studies Association, its affiliates and agents, to use my image and likeness and/or any interview statements from me in its publications, advertising or other media activities (including the Internet). This consent includes, but is not limited to:
(a) Permission to interview, film, photograph, tape, or otherwise make a video reproduction of me and/or record my voice;
(b) Permission to use my name; and
(c) Permission to use quotes from the interview(s) (or excerpts of such quotes), the film, photograph(s), tape(s) or reproduction(s) of me, and/or recording of my voice, in part or in whole, in its publications, in newspapers, magazines and other print media, on television, radio and electronic media (including the Internet), in theatrical media and/or in mailings for educational and awareness.

By signing below, I state I am over the age of 18, and I agree to the terms listed in the above Photo Consent and Release Form.

*ARE YOU PRESENTING? IF YES, CONTINUE BELOW.

For the purpose of this release, Appalachian Studies Association (ASA) defines intellectual property (IP) rights as relating to: manuscripts; presentations; work products; conference: plenary, paper or panel session recordings; and other formally provided author works, all hereafter referred to as "materials". Materials are commonly associated and/or presented at ASA conferences, and other events. This release also includes the right for ASA to use any photography, videography, sound recording or any other manner of recording of the author’s presentation at any ASA conference or event. Generally, under copyright law, an author's written work is owned by and copyrighted to him/her unless specific releases are obtained. ASA will give credit to authors when their works are reused.

Author hereby gives ASA the right to publish this work, and any presentation of it, and to use it for all of ASA’s current and future uses, including but not limited to, use on: ASA’s website, social media platforms, including YouTube, Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr, and Instagram, as well as videos and promotional materials. Usage will have no remuneration to the author or assignee. The author retains any copyright to their materials.

By signing below, I state I am over the age of 18, and I agree to the terms listed in the above Presenter’s Intellectual Property Release.
