Annual Bibliography, 2010
compiled by Jo. B. Brown...............................................................................................................

Book Reviews
edited by Katherine Ledford............................................................................................................

Fiction and Poetry
Appalachian Folk Tales

Beech Mountain Man: Memoirs of Ronda Hicks
Learning How: Stories, Yarns, and Tales
............................................................
Lambs of Men
........................................................................
Paradox Hill: From Appalachia to Lunar Shore

Teller Tales: Histories

Spider Speculations: A Physics and Biophysics of Storytelling
........................................................................

A History of Education in Kentucky
........................................................................
Witness to Reconstruction: Constance Fenimore Woolson and the Postbellum South, 1873 - 1894
...........................................................................

Media Reviews
edited by Catherine Moore...............................................................................................................

Coal

Dirty Business

Low Coal

On Coal River

Deep Down: A Story from the Heart of Coal Country

Gasland

Jamie Oliver’s Food Revolution

Louie Bluie

Morristown: In the Air and Sun

Old-Time Smoky Mountain Music: 34 Historic Songs, Ballads, and Instrumentals recorded in the Great Smoky Mountains by “Song Catcher” Joseph S. Hall
........................................................................